

ARTIFICIAL APPLIANCES

Appliances (including wheelchairs, braces, prosthetics, etc.) should not normally be furnished for any other purpose than to assist consumers who need them in order to achieve the planned vocational objective. Purchase of appliances must conform to established fee schedules.

Prescription glasses and visual aids (e.g., contact lenses, cataract lenses etc.) may be provided as an ancillary service during the rehabilitation process. These purchases must also conform to established fee schedules.